Native Title Operations & Management Training

image not found or type unknown

The National Native Title Council with our partners at RMIT, AIATSIS and Melbourne Business School, is conducting training for Traditional Owners, PBC members and their staff to better understand their PBC as a business. This 5 day intensive workshop will be held at RMIT University in the Melbourne CBD.

The training is open to all PBC members, directors, CEO's, Traditional Owners and board members interested in learning more about managing and growing your PBC. We also welcome members, staff and directors of non-PBC Traditional Owner Corporations such as those recognised under the Traditional Owner Settlement Act. The National Native Title Council will cover the cost of the entire workshop but participants will need to fund their own travel and accommodation. Leading experts from RMIT university, Melbourne Business School, AIATSIS and NNTC will deliver the workshops.

What the course covers:

Using case studies the 5 day workshop will cover topics such as communications and marketing, business fundamentals (inc SWOT, Force Field Analysis), strategic conversations and stakeholder relationships, governance structures, HR and finance. The workshop also addresses how to pitch for grants, board personality and balance, leadership, negotiating and diplomacy within your PBC and interactive activities throughout the week. Completion of the course can lead to formal TAFE accreditation and open pathways to further TAFE and Higher Education programs.
