2017 AIATSIS
NATIONAL INDIGENOUS
RESEARCH CONFERENCE
IMPACT | ENGAGEMENT | TRANSFORMATION
21-23 MARCH, CANBERRA ACT

21 Mar, 2017
to 23 Mar, 2017

The AIATSIS National Indigenous Research Conference 2017 - Impact, Engagement, Transformation - will draw together researchers, policymakers, cultural and collecting institutions, the corporate sector and Indigenous organisations and communities. The Conference will examine how we can more effectively target research efforts to achieve better policy outcomes and practice with lasting impact through transformative change.

Research plays a central role in creating transformative change in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities. Questions of impact and engagement in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander research are front and centre in this change. So too is the way in which the Indigenous research effort innovates to inform policy and practice around Indigenous development.

AIATSIS and the University of Canberra will be co-convening the AIATSIS National Indigenous Research Conference 2017. The conference will be held at Hotel Realm, Barton ACT from Tuesday 21 - Thursday 23 March 2017.

Registrations for the conference are now open. See here for more information.
